PRESS RELEASE

HERTS HOTELIERS WELCOME COUNTY SHOW PRIZEWINNER

Members of the Hertfordshire Hoteliers Association welcomed a special guest after their latest monthly board meeting, held at Sopwell House Hotel and Spa, St Albans.

Part of the meeting was devoted to feedback from this year's Hertfordshire County Show, with officers reporting a highly-successful return from this year's presence.

Continuing its policy of promoting Hertfordshire as an ideal tourist destination, the association entertained a steady stream of visitors to its stand while making its presence felt further by distributing hundreds of balloons to passers-by.

A feature of the stand was a competition with prizes donated by member hotels, with Helen Westwood from Sandridge landing the major award of dinner for two at St Michael's Manor Hotel, St Albans.

Helen was invited to a special ceremony after the monthly board meeting to receive her voucher, handed over by HHA chairman Richard Marrett, who is also general manager of St Michael's Manor.
